

For All The Saints

IT'S STILL SUMMERTIME:
PLEASE REMEMBER TO COME TO CHURCH!

The Rector's Corner

Dear Friends,

This last full month of the summer season brings with it lots of planning for the regular program year—September through June. Whatever ministry you may participate in will be taking a careful look at what this upcoming timeframe will include. Please make sure that your voice is heard in whatever ministry that may be.

TRAVELERS' BLESSINGS

Continued blessings to all who will be traveling during the months of August and September. Please remember that when you are in town, make sure you keep up your attendance at church. This may be a good time for you try a worship service other than the one you regularly attend. There are four, regular, weekly celebrations of the Holy Eucharist from Memorial Day through Labor Day: Sundays at 8:00 am & 10:15 am, Wednesdays at 8:30 am, and Saturdays at 5:30 pm (outdoors in the garden, if the weather cooperates; if not, in the parish hall). So, if you are not able to attend one service, try another one, including the Wednesday service.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Thought for the month:

'Maybe the thing that you're putting 'on hold' is your involvement with a new ministry.'

There are many opportunities for everyone to find just the right place to participate in doing the work that God has called us to do. Check it out!

"And, please remember, I am counting on seeing you in church!"

Blessings,

Robert

The Reverend Robert A. Nagy, Rector

There will be an exhibit of the paintings of Sarah Ann Kimbrough (1930-2016) on display at Bay Head Borough Hall from July 30—August 11, 2018.

A reception will be held on Sunday, August 5 from 4-6 pm. Come out and see Sara Kimbrough's art exhibit being presented by her husband, Dr. Kimbrough of the Duke Divinity School in Durham, NC.

Planned Giving

Join Us for 'Lunch and Learn' Session with the All Saints Legacy Society

Mark your calendars! The Legacy Society of All Saints Church is inviting the entire congregation to a 'Lunch and Learn' session following coffee hour after the 10:15 am service on October 14th. Please join us for a chance to chat with Planned Giving committee members and learn more about planned giving in support of the long-term goals of the parish — and enjoy lunch and a glass of wine!

Our planned giving campaign and the creation of the Legacy Society was announced at the annual meeting in January by parishioner Mark Durham. In the spring we distributed brochures and sent letters expanding on the subject to the parish. The All Saints Legacy Society was formed to expand the All Saints endowment through the acceptance of estate and planned gifts. The Legacy Society is open to anyone who declares they have made a provision for All Saints Church in their estate plan or planned gift to the endowment. Those of us who make such provisions will join those who already have made legacy gifts of record in the past and will be added as members of the Society. Of course, a planned gift may be made to our endowment at any time.

By providing for All Saints with a legacy gift, you will continue to fund its ministries and mission in perpetuity. Planned, long-term gifts to the parish complement our annual financial pledges and support our parish community as well as communities in Monmouth and Ocean counties, across New Jersey and around the world.

The October 14th meeting will include testimonials of parishioners who are being inducted into our All Saints Legacy Society. They will share their stories of why they have been moved by their faith in Jesus and why they want to continue the legacy of All Saints Church by leaving some of their treasure that God has entrusted them with.

Please check the enclosed self-addressed card indicating whether you will be able to attend the Legacy Society meeting. Please drop it in the mail so it is received by October 1st.

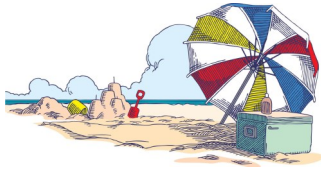

Thank you and blessings,

The Planned Giving Committee

Outreach News

A Day a the Beach with St. Paul's, Camden

We are once again hosting the Camp Faith Counselors from St. Paul's. This is always an enjoyable day for our friends—and for those of us here at All Saints who volunteer. The date is Thursday, August 23. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board. We can use your help! We will need people for set-up, clean-up, volunteers to spend some time with our guests that day, as well as food donations. Any questions, please talk to me, Rick Hager or any member of the Outreach Committee. It really is a fun day.

St. Paul's Camden has sponsored and operated their summer camp program since 1990. Camp Faith provides a joy-filled and safe environment where children from Camden can come to know Jesus. Singing, Bible stories, games, athletics, crafts and community trips are provided. Approximately 75 children are enrolled each summer.

The Outreach Committee will be collecting food and provisions for a summer BBQ to be donated to St. Gregory's Pantry. We're certain that the Pantry's clients will appreciate essentials and special goodies for a BBQ with family or neighbors—a fun way to celebrate the end of summer. Shopping bags complete with a list of suggested items will be distributed Sunday, August 12.

Please consider filling a bag and returning it on Sunday, August 19. They will be dropped off at St. Gregory's the next day, in time to be given out for Labor Day weekend.

Thank you from the Outreach Committee and St. Gregory's!

Annual Luncheon & Fashion Show

What a wonderful day it was! Everyone enjoyed the lunch, bidding on the silent auction items, and dropping their tickets into the basket jars, hoping to win one of the beautifully created baskets. It was fun watching our own members as they modeled clothes selected by our "fashion houses". This year our models featured clothing from J. McLaughlin of Bay Head, bree Ana Fashions and Styles in Silver from Point Pleasant Beach, Andi's Gifts and Accessories in Bay Head and Tangerine Boutique in Bay Head.

Kudos to everyone who worked extremely hard to make this event such a success. It takes many hands and many hours of hard work to have such a successful event.

They were all of them saints of God

Following their grand wedding at All Saints Church and their memorable beachfront reception at the Felton Cottage on June 30th, 1905, Capt. and Mrs. Smedley D. Butler headed to the Adirondacks in upstate New York for their honeymoon. It wasn't long, though, before Capt. Butler returned to the Marine Corps and resumed his duties.

Butler's service record from 1898 to 1931 is unmatched. He fought in the Spanish-American War in Cuba, the Philippine-American War at Manila, the Boxer Rebellion in China, the Banana Wars in the Caribbean and Central America, and, finally, served in World War I. His decorated service speaks for itself. In July 1900 1st Lt. Butler was awarded the Marine Corps Brevet Medal "for distinguished conduct and public service in the presence of the enemy . . . near Tientsin, China." In April 1914, then-Major Butler would receive the first of his two Medals of Honor. The citation reads "For distinguished conduct in battle, engagement of Vera Cruz, 22 April 1914. Major Butler was eminent and conspicuous in command of his battalion. He exhibited courage and skill in leading his men through the action of the 22d and in the final occupation of the city."

Before the smoke cleared from battles in Mexico, Butler and his Marines were sent to intervene in Haiti after the assassination of the Haitian President. Butler took command of the Haitian military police force fighting against the armed insurgents. It was here on 17 November 1915 where Major Butler earned his second Medal of Honor for conspicuous bravery during the successful assault on the insurgents' stronghold. Smedley Butler is the only member of the U.S. Marine Corps to earn the Brevet Medal and two Medals of Honor.

In 1918 Brigadier General Butler was assigned to Camp Pontanezen at Brest, France, a debarkation depot that funneled troops of the American Expeditionary Force to the battlefields. At the time of his assignment, the camp was unsanitary, overcrowded and disorganized. In short order he "solved all (the problems) with conspicuous success, performing services of the highest character of the American Expeditionary Forces." These words appeared in the citations accompanying the Army and Navy Distinguished Service Medals he was awarded. After the war he was assigned to the Marine Barracks at Marine Corps Base Quantico, Virginia. During his tenure there he transformed the wartime training camp into the permanent Marine Corps post it is today.

After retiring from the Marines Butler became an outspoken critic of the business of war. He wrote in his book War Is a Racket "I served in all commissioned ranks from second lieutenant to Major General. And during that period I spent most of my time being a high-class muscle-man for Big Business, for Wall Street and for the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer for capitalism. I suspected I was just part of the racket all the time. Now I am sure of it." Raised in a Quaker family, he came to see his service, particularly in Central America and China, as nothing short of protecting the financial interests of the wealthiest corporations in America.

Along the way, Smedley and Ethel raised three children: Ethel (b1906), Smedley Junior (b1909) and Thomas (b1913). Smedley Senior died on June 21, 1940, at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Philadelphia; Ethel died on June 15, 1962 in Newtown Square, PA.
